PLEASE NOTE
The copyright status of photographs and audiovisual material is often difficult to determine, because it is affected by such things as the employment status of the photographer, the date material was created, the date material was first published, and what information accompanied the first publication. The Henry Ford has not determined copyright status for many of the photographs and audiovisual materials in our collection. In many instances, The Henry Ford is acting only as an owner of the physical original:
- The Henry Ford is not responsible for either determining the copyright status of the image(s) or for securing copyright permission.
- Possession of a photograph from The Henry Ford does not constitute permission to use it.
- Users of materials are required to complete and return this permission form.

The Henry Ford charges individual, non-profit and commercial users fees in order to support the maintenance of the collections. Use fees will be determined from the information on the permission form.
