

Innovation Learning Accelerator

MISSION

The Henry Ford provides unique educational experiences based on authentic objects, stories and lives from America's traditions of ingenuity, resourcefulness and innovation. Our purpose is to inspire people to learn from these traditions to shape a better future.

VISION

The Henry Ford will be a nationally recognized destination and force for fueling the spirit of American innovation and inspiring a "can-do" culture.

GOAL

Our goal is to be a catalyst for change in the American education system.

Gain perspective.
Get inspired.
Make history.

What we promise

The Henry Ford wants to ignite a learning revolution and give every child in America access to critical ideas, content on innovation, and problem-solving skills that will enable him or her to be the next 21st-century innovator or STEM practitioner.

Why now and why should you care?

As a nation, we are on the brink of a crisis: We are at risk of losing our global competitiveness. The future growth of this nation depends on innovation, STEM and 21st-century skills that will produce the competitive workforce we so desperately need.

Why us?

With its collection of 26 million artifacts that tell the story of American innovation, ingenuity and resourcefulness, The Henry Ford is uniquely positioned to unlock the potential of one of the world's greatest collections of content, stories and experiences about American innovation.

What we will do

The Henry Ford's Innovation Learning Accelerator will:

- Train and empower 5000 innovative teacher-leaders to teach innovation with The Henry Ford's innovation curricula, Innovation 101 and Be an Innovator Like children's series.
- Inspire 125,000 students to "think and act" like innovators.
- Continue to gather qualitative and quantitative data that shows that The Henry Ford's Innovation Learning Accelerator is effective in cultivating innovative mindsets in learners; effective in offering tangible tools and resources to teach innovation; and effective in helping cultivate a culture of innovation.

Join The Henry Ford as a partner, supporter or participant and help create both positive change in the American education system and a better workforce of tomorrow.
