

A Norman Rockwell painting of a Ford Model T touring car in a barn. The car is dark with a yellow engine compartment and red wheels. A man in a straw hat is driving, with a woman and a child in the back seat. A man in a suit is leaning into the car from the side. A young boy in a straw hat stands by the front of the car. A woman in a grey dress and white apron stands to the right, with a young girl in a white dress and a black dog nearby. A white horse's head is visible in a stall on the right. A white chicken is in the foreground. The barn has wooden walls and a wooden door.

the Henry Ford

Take it forward.™

Rev it up with hundreds of authentic vehicles from the 1890s to the 1930s at America's longest running antique car show. Open 'til 9 on Saturday night!

September 7-8, 2013

Old Car Festival

Greenfield Village®

Ford Model T Touring Car by Norman Rockwell, 1952. From the collections of The Henry Ford.